

Duke opens playing fields

Hendon - where the Duke of Edinburgh opened the new running track and stadium of the Jewish Maccabi Movement. Before cutting the tape, the Duke had this to say:
~~said~~ SOUND

The Maccabi Association began some thirty years ago - to provide sports facilities for Jewish boys and girls who are prevented by their religion from joining organised sport ~~playing organised games~~ on Saturdays

Charles Wesley memorial

~~xxxxxxx~~ London - where a Memorial Plaque to Charles Wesley, (brother of John Wesley - the founder of the Methodist ~~Church~~ ^{Church}) was unveiled on the original site of his home in Marylebone - by the Rev. Colin Roberts. The Preacher's great-great grand-daughter watched the ceremony.

~~xxx~~ Recently, Charles Wesley Memorial Gardens were opened in the ~~church~~ ^{church} yard of St. Marylebone ~~Church~~ ^{where the great churchman lies at rest} where he was buried further commemorating ~~the~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ a great Churchman who wrote over 6,000 hymns.