

2071

The Duke installed as Chancellor--

Nov 5th. '53.

Academic history was made in the Scottish Capital's McEwan Hall, when the Duke of Edinburgh was invested as Chancellor of Edinburgh University by Sir Edward Appleton- Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University.

INSTALLED THE NEW CHANCELLOR

The <sup>Duke's</sup> new Chancellor's first duty was to confer the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon <sup>several</sup> distinguished men--

Field-Marshal Viscount Alambrooke- Chancellor of Queen's University, Belfast.

Sir Alexander Fleming . F.R.S- Rector of Edinburgh University.

Admiral of the Fleet - Lord Fraser of North Cape.

Dr Kurt Hahn- the Duke's headmaster at his old school at Gordonstoun.

~~AND HE ALSO MENTIONED~~

The Duke, then, addressed the University- ~~REMINING THEM OF A~~

~~PREVIOUS OCCASION~~ (Sound to end)-

~~THE DUKE THEN RETURNED TO A DRAWING~~

2071

The Duke installed as Chancellor

6th Nov. 53

Academic history was made in the Scottish Capital's McEwan Hall, when the Duke of Edinburgh was invested as Chancellor of Edinburgh University. Sir Edward Appleton - Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University installed the new Chancellor.

The Duke's first duty was to confer the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon several distinguished men, among them

Field-Marshal Viscount Alanbrooke - Chancellor of Queen's University, Belfast.

Sir Alexander Fleming. F.R.S. Rector of Edinburgh University.

Admiral of the Fleet - Lord Fraser of North Cape.

AND Dr Kurt Hahn - the Duke's Headmaster at his old school at Gordonstoun.

The Duke, then, addressed the University - reminding them of a previous occasion. SOUND TO END.