

Roving Camera--

Nov 10th. 1953.

Death of Ibn Saud--

Saudi-Arabia- where more than six million subjects mourn the <sup>untimely</sup> passing of King Ibn Saud , ~~one of the great rulers of the Arab world and a statesman since the days of Mohammed.~~

<sup>colony and mud hauled</sup>
The 73 year-old ruler was a staunch friend and ally of Britain in the <sup>character</sup> war years ~~and was one of the victors of the war.~~

Dionne Quin-

Quebec-- where at the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament Convent, Marie Dionne- one of the famous quintuplets- takes leave of her family, with a last fond embrace for her mother.

Marie is renouncing the world ~~and its pleasures~~, for a life of meditation and prayer, as she joins one of the most cloistered Orders of the Roman Catholic Faith.

New York Horse Show-

America-- where a team of the celebrated red-coated Canadian "Mounties" provide the star turn- ~~with~~ a musical ride at the National Horse Show in New York.

A thrilling finale came in the Four-Nations Jumping Tests, when Britain's ace horsewoman Pat Smythe completed a perfect round in 40 seconds. But Canada's 18 year-old Shirley Thomas took a second less , and so won the International Challenge Trophy.

Roving Camera--

2072

Death of Ibn Saud-

Saudi-Arabia -- where more than six million subjects mourn the untimely passing of King Ibn Saud. The 73 year-old ruler was a staunch friend and ally of Britain in the years of war (BRING UP)

Dionne Quin--

Quebec - where, at the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament Convent, Marie Dionne -- one of the famous quintuplets - takes leave of her family, with a last fond embrace for her mother. Marie is renouncing the world for a life of meditation and prayer, as she joins one of the most cloistered Orders of the Catholic Faith (BRING UP)

New York Horse Show--

America - where a team of the celebrated red-coated Canadian "Mounties" provide a star turn - a musical ride at the National Horse Show in New York (BRING UP)

A thrilling finale came in the Four-Nations Jumping Tests, when Britain's ace horsewoman, Pat Smythe, completed a perfect round in 40 seconds (BRING UP)

But Canada's 18 year-old Shirley Thomas took one second less, and so won the International Challenge Trophy (BRING UP)

Day of Remembrance.

Once more the Cenotaph in London's Whitehall, becomes the place of pilgrimage where we pay tribute to those who died in two World Wars. 1914 ---1939. Her Majesty the Queen, clad in the simple dignity of her sincerity, has come in personal homage; and to represent all our peoples, everywhere, on this day of re-Dedication (BRING UP)

After the silence of our thoughts of those years that are past, Her Majesty lays a wreath of Flanders Poppies upon the National Shrine. (BRING UP)

The Duke of Edinburgh, too, remembering his own comrades-in-arms of the war years, who laid down their lives. (BRING UP)

Mr Eden - for Sir Winston Churchill and members of the Government. (BRING UP)

And Mr Attlee - followed by High Commissioners and representatives of the Colonies and Protectorates. (BRING UP)

The great Parade - Queen, Statesmen, Servicemen, Civilian men and women, stirs to life - And once again - memory has bridged these forty years that have changed the world forever... (BRING UP)