

Every Autumn the Cycle and Motor Cycle Exhibition opens in London, ~~to~~ to remind enthusiasts of happy hours on the open road. But whether it's for touring or just shopping in the nearest village - there's ^a machine on show for the ^{very} job. ~~job.~~

Of course, every "old iron", as they're affectionately called, is not as elaborate as this gold-plated model - specially built for Mr Jamindar das Nundy - an Indian merchant.

~~■~~ Your choice may rest on this special light-weight type - that ^{of motor-cycle} combines comfort with maximum safety.

~~While the speed fans may~~
~~Even if real enthusiasts prefer the 160 m.p.h. "Black Lightning", at $174~~
the Show's most expensive model. ~~S~~

~~Or the 99 c.w. Excelsior "Consort" - the lowest price British motor-bike..~~
~~Yes. for a life on the open road, the Show is a real picnic~~
~~But for any open air enthusiast - the Show is certainly a picnic - with~~ ~~"Teddy-bears" ^{picnic in feet} thrown in...~~
