Crew of the Royal Stratocruiser--

Nov 17th. '53.

INTRODUCING

IS CARRYING

~~This~~ is the crew of the B.O.A.C. Stratocruiser that ~~is~~ the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh to the West Indies, at the start of their Commonwealth Tour.

And looking after ~~their~~ ^{the comfort} of the Royal Party ~~is~~ Miss Juanita Alice Polandi, ~~who~~ ^{THE} ~~has recently been promoted to~~ Flight Stewardess.

In command is Captain A.C. Lorraine- a senior pilot- with over 14,000 flying hours to his credit ~~who~~ ~~was~~ ~~approached~~ ~~in~~ ~~light~~ ~~of~~ ~~their~~ ~~signal~~ ~~importance~~. (Sound)--

~~And so we charge them with the safe keeping of the Royal Travellers~~

Meanwhile- our cameraman flying over the West Coast of Scotland, ~~found~~ found the new Royal Yacht "Britannia" undergoing tests on the Admiralty measured mile, off the isle of Arran.

Later, the vessel will return to Clydebank, for fitting out, before she finally goes on acceptance trials- ~~at the end of the year.~~ PRIOR TO JOINING THE
