Churchill in Bermuda--

Dec 4th. '53.

MEANWHILE, BACK IN BERMUDA,

The B.O.A.C. stratocruiser "Canopus" ~~touches down at Bermuda~~
~~at 10:30~~ - brings Sir Winston Churchill and Mr Eden for the vital 3-Power Conference.

~~At 10:30~~ The Premier ~~is welcomed~~
~~at the airport~~ is welcomed by the Governor - Sir Alexander Hood, and other high-ranking island officials.

And though a thoughtful member of the airliner's crew remembered Sir Winston's gloves, the veteran statesman ~~didn't wear an overcoat,~~
~~despite~~ a blustering wind.

So, in the Mid-Ocean Hotel in Bermuda, the Round-Table Conference will thrash out the best ways and means of preserving world peace - as Mr Eden explains (Sound to end).
