

BERLIN

With mixed feelings, East and West Germany watch the flags come down on the Foreign Ministers Conference - ~~symbolising~~ - symbolising the shelving of their hopes for national unity.

Back at London airport, on his way home from Germany, Mr Eden recorded this interview / SOUND.

~~Disappointing news~~; but what of the Far East. Mr Eden? / SOUND

So, with a Conference scheduled to write the final chapter of the Korean war, America's famous 45th Division ^{is} reviewed at a farewell parade on the Peninsula by General Maxwell Taylor, 8th Army Commander.

~~There's~~ There's a silver lining in the sky for these veterans. That goodbye salute means that they're bound for home ~~any day now~~

Heroes of many gallant actions, the 45th is one of two Divisions being replaced by South Korean troops. So now their Korean story has a happy ending.

And there's a happy beginning to a new life for eighty-two refugees from Eastern Europe (among them many children and a Nun) arriving at Idlewild Airport, New York.

Among the group (which travelled under the care of a Committee for European migration) were many families ^{whose} ~~whose~~ search for freedom, ^{over} ~~over~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{people of} ~~the~~ Springfield, Illinois, (where Abraham Lincoln ^{was} ~~was~~ ^{that} ~~that~~ ^{early} ~~early~~ ^{champion} ~~champion~~ of personal liberty once lived) ^{support a nationwide} ~~support a nationwide~~ ^{freedom crusade} ~~freedom crusade~~ a new "crusade for freedom" is launched.

Balloons (similar to those used to carry messages behind the Iron Curtain) ~~are paraded~~ ^{now} ~~are~~ ^{CARRY} ~~are~~

~~each~~ ~~carries~~ an appeal for funds - a floating levy for freedom
