

Ther Queen unveils U.S. Memorial --

Australia -- and one of the outstanding events of the Royal visit to Camberra- the Federal Capital- was the unveiling by the Queen of the Commonwealth's memorial to the United States - in grateful appreciation of their vital help after Pearl Harbour.

2102

And the Prime Minister, who was accompanied by Mrs Menzies, present voiced the immense pride of all those present at having the Queen, whom theyloved, unveil the memorial.

Military honours were provided by an INFERT Australian Naval SPOKE OF UNITED STATES_ U.S. Australian detachment, as the Queen (Sound) brotherhood-in-arms.

The manufact states are a half over looking outsease without ted THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O

MEMBRIAL STAMOS ON A HILL OVERLOUKING CAMBERDA AND - tribute by a grateful Commonwealth to a good neighbour from across the Pacific.

The Royal visitors also attended a ceremony at the National War Memorial nearby -- a handsome stone pile that contains a museum and art gallery.

In the presence of relatives of the fallen, Her Majesty paid her own simple token to Australia's mighty dead of two world wars.

For the west Queen and the Duke- and indeed all of us- will never forget the glorious achievements of two generations of service men and women- so far away- who instantly joined the Mother Country in her in the trus of her questest reed.