

Cup-tie fever grips East Anglia. Two clubs in the last sixteen of the English cup and forty thousand fans cheer Norwich - the men who spiked the guns of mighty Arsenal in Round Four.

The visitors are Leicester City, (in white shorts). Seeking further honours - they're already well in the Second Division Promotion race.

All eyes on the centre circle, and Hines kicks off for Leicester. But it's Norwich sweeping into ^{the} attack - the giant-killers in search of that golden egg that comes with cup success.

And Leicester are stung to reply - their talented forward-line keeping the Norwich defence at full stretch.

Cut and thrust for fourteen minutes - eager probing raids and then Gordon collects a pass - a fine centre - and Brennan puts the Third Division side in the lead.

The second half - Norwich one-up. Leicester staging non-stop attacks. Rowley is going through - but no! Down he comes - just inside the area - the dreaded whistle sounds - a penalty for Leicester

And Rowley just makes it.

Norwich 1 - Leicester 1. The Canaries fighting again - fighting to make Club history with a place in the sixth round.

Back comes Leicester and here comes the winner - Small putting the Midland side into Round Six

In 1949 Leicester reached the Final - now they're hoping to go one better
