Crisis in Egypt

25th Feb. 54

~~Only~~ Only twenty months ago, the cheers of his fellow-countrymen proclaimed General Neguib, the new President ~~of Egypt~~^{of Egypt}. Our pictures show him with some of the Army officers who had overthrown the long-established Monarchy - forcing King Farouk to flee the country. 40
To-day, General Neguib has been deposed by the same military ~~group~~^{group}, who have accusing him of demanding dictatorial powers. The Vice-Premier, Lt. Colonel Gamal Nasser (who ~~it~~ is now revealed ~~was~~ the strong man behind the coup of 1952) becomes Premier and has declared a "state of emergency!" 46
