

Egypt. After twenty months in office, General Neguib (who deposed King Farouk in the military coup of 1952) has been forced to resign and placed under house arrest. The new Premier is Colonel Gamal Nasser, who has assumed full powers.

Pakistan Continuing his world tour, Mr St. Laurent, the Canadian Premier, arrived by air in Karachi. During his stay, he met the Prime Minister, Mr Mohd Ali, and was the guest of honour at a State Banquet.

France During his recent good-will visit to Paris, the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Noel Bowater laid a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. ~~Sir Noel led a City delegation as guests of the French Capital.~~

Great Britain At a christening in London, Princess Margaret became Godmother to Sarah Charlotte Margaret, the baby daughter of Mrs John Lowther - the Princess's Extra Lady-in-Waiting.

Among Wrens on parade at H.M.S. Dauntless (a training establishment near Reading) ~~XXXXXX~~ for the visit of the Duchess of Kent, their Chief Commandant) were new recruits - some with only a week's service. After a ceremonial march-past, the Duchess left amid rousing cheers. Wedding bells and a bridal arch at St. Margaret's, Westminster, for Miss Mariette Hornby and Lt. Hall of the 11th Hussars, ~~who is serving in Malaya.~~

The Bride (~~a cousin of the Duke of Edinburgh~~) was attended by ten small bridesmaids and two pages in miniature Hussar uniforms.

America Driving away the ^{cares} ~~burden~~ of high office, President Eisenhower enjoys his favourite sport in California. His partner was world champion, Ben Hogan. And with Ben putting like the master he is - let's keep the President's score - a State Secret.

Korea ~~the~~ ^{and} a blonde bombshell hits the Peninsula. Marilyn Monroe, the U.S. Army's favourite pin-up girl, taking time off from her honeymoon to entertain the troops. Ten thousand gathered in this hill-side theatre. Trouble was they all wanted front seats to hear her sing, In the rush - some were trampled on. ^{Surprise?}