

Kenya: Making his third visit since the Mau Mau emergency began, Mr Lyttelton, the Colonial Secretary was greeted at Nairobi Airport by the Governor ~~Phillips~~, Sir Evelyn Baring.

It has been suggested that plans to return all Kikuyu to their Tribal Reserves have been discussed by the Colonial Secretary with the Civil and Military authorities.

But that would only prove a temporary solution to a problem that brought a special Parliamentary delegation, led by Mr Walter Elliott to Kenya.

~~During their tour, the M.P.s (drawn from both major parties) travelled the territories seeking first-hand information on~~

The delegates were

~~They were even~~ taken on a typical forest patrol - (each carrying a Service rifle and fifty rounds) to get personal impressions of the difficulties encountered in locating these terrorist gangs.

It was on one such patrol that General China <sup>one of the</sup> Mau-Mau Leader, was wounded and captured. Since his trial, General China has been helping the authorities to try and arrange meetings with other leaders and urging them to surrender. Peace moves that ~~has won the approval of the cabinet.~~

bring new hope to KENYA.
