

Whipsnade Zoo: Searching for those brighter days, we found the ponies putting their best foot forward, and the latest call of Spring "Get up you Lazy Donkey!"

The sea-lions were hoping for another freeze-up; but it seems there was a general flap-on. "Spring had come a little early" bringing two baby lambs ^{to} Only six hours old. The proud parents are Four-horned or Jacob Sheep - natives of the Middle East.

Back in London came more signs of "brighter days for the male!" The Trade Fair and Spring Fashion Parade - devotedly exclusively to Men's Wear - held at the Festival Hall.

The first of its kind, the Show featured everything from morning to evening wear, with perky comments by that tailored dummy, Archie Andrews. ^{SOUND} During the display of a Highland Full Dress suit, worn with a kilt - young Archie's curiosity got the better of him. ^{SOUND}.

It's said that a Scotsman wears a Sporrán to keep track of his money... Nature gave mother Wallaby one - to keep track of the kids. I keeps them out of mischief.

Yes, Spring is in the air, and this year, Gaumont-British News is determined to hear it first. ^{SOUND}.
