

Stars leave for Film Festival

London Airport: South America-bound - a bevy of British film stars including Mai Zetterling, Helen Cherry, Lovely Lana Morris (2) and Trevor Howard...

~~This~~ This talented group is to represent British pictures at the forthcoming World Film Festival ~~International competition~~

Pan-American conference

Venezuela: The University City of Caracas stages the 10th International Inter-American Conference - attended by delegates from the Western Continents.

Heading the Washington group was Secretary-of-State Dulles - who hoped to focus the attention of the Republics on the ~~infiltration~~ infiltration of Communism in Latin America.

Mardi Gras

America - The spirit of Mardi Gras reigns in New Orleans - bringing record crowds of tourists to celebrate the annual Pre-Lenten ~~xx~~ Festival. It's the season of fun and frolic, with flower-decorated floats ~~and~~ ~~and~~ ~~and~~ - way down in old New Orleans.

Golden Gloves

New York: The Golden Gloves Eastern Championships at Madison Square Garden, with Joe Davis on the receiving end in the middleweight final. John Morris of Pittsburg, the City of Steel, is ~~living up to his "metal"~~ <sup>14-76c</sup> And Joe Davis is counted out. ~~Perhaps~~ he ought to take up snooker?

Sultan of Morocco

North Africa: Making the first tour of his territories since his accession, last August, the Sultan of Morocco, arrived in Marrakech, ~~where he was~~

~~where he was~~
~~where he was~~
During a visit to the Berrima Mosque, the Sultan narrowly escaped death when a bomb exploded at his feet - <sup>wounded</sup> wounded him in the forehead. The assassin was killed.