

Giant U.S. Liner

Seattle: Work in progress on America's new jet transport, the Boeing 707 - which, it is claimed, will be a ~~mighty~~ rival to the Comet. The Boeing will weigh about 85 tons and carry 150 tourist-class passengers at 550 miles an hour.

New Russian Commander

Vienna

Austria: Goodwill visit by General Berusov, the new C-in-C of the Russian Occupation Troops in Austria - to the British Garrison in the City... and the General couldn't have gained a better impression of ^{the British} ~~British~~ ~~Army~~ - for the Middlesex Regiment, (the "famous Diehards") did him full honours - even to a ceremonial march-past.

German Toys

Germany: In Nuremberg - the home of mechanical toys, they're holding an exhibition that ^{goes} ~~strikes~~ straight to the heart of any youngster.

A thrill for the grown-ups - a model electric railway - a masterpiece of timing.

But when Dad becomes the nursery signalman! Oh well!