

Florida: Two-wheel speed kings at Daytona Beach for the American National Championships. And - away they go - speeding over the slippery sand. A hundred miles of whirling wheels.

Into the bend with no time to stall. He's out of control. And here's <sup>when things start to go wrong!</sup> ~~where he falls~~

Easy does it - just like falling off a log. You missed it? O.K. Let's have a repeat. Just like falling off two logs.

Off the beaten track - and out of the race; but not out of danger.

~~They fall into a ditch...~~
HEY! LOOK OUT FOR THAT BANKING!
~~And they fall over the top.~~ Some did finish the course. First and second were Bobby Hill and Dick Elamforth riding B.S.A's - a resounding British triumph...
