

Aberdeen Six. Glasgow Rangers Nil. And if you Soccer fans have recovered from ~~after~~ the biggest Scottish semi-final shock for years. Here's the story, ~~and~~ Aberdeen's first goal - Young Joe O'Neill was the scorer.

Well, Aberdeen decided that this was the day to record their first-ever Scottish Cup win over the Rangers. And revenge last year's Final defeat - yes - by the Rangers.

With their fans cheering them on - Aberdeen went to Town. Here's the second goal. Joe O'Neill again.

~~And with the North-Eastern side leading two nothing at half-time - Glasgow fans were worried...~~

The second half saw Rangers - the renowned Cup fighters - striving to save the game. ~~But~~ Brown did the only saving - in masterly style...

But he knew little about this one that hit the cross-bar...

Then those Glasgow fans literally cheered their favourites back into the fray. A free-kick for the "Blues"? A hectic goal-mouth scramble; but somehow the Granite men scramble it away.

And this is the time to admit that the ball wasn't running for the Rangers. Once they hit the upright; but they missed their chances, too.

When the Rangers did get going - they were thrills around the Aberdeen goal. Yet, always at the vital moment - luck seemed to desert them.

And quick to profit from their narrow escape - Aberdeen swept back and

~~But~~ Leggatt sealed up the game. Aberdeen three - Rangers nil. up from

The Glasgow side were paying dearly for that one-goal win in last year's final. Aberdeen fans were smiling. So was Joe O'Neill - a real joy-day with his third goal and Aberdeen's fourth.

~~And no wonder - it is not after anyone this I had tried off that sporting desire...~~

Later - came an Aberdeen corner - and more trouble for the bewildered Rangers - a penalty award. D

And ~~wing-half~~ Roach Allister made no mistake. to bring the score to 6-0. / see

An Aberdeen fan's last words. "When we get six goals on a Saturday, Glasgow belongs to me."
