

Rouen Carillon

France: The famous Carillon in the Tower of the Gothic Cathedral of Rouen has been restored. Now incorporating fifty bells (~~the~~) the carillon, ~~with~~ rings out the good tidings - the rebirth of the City, TEN YEARS AFTER ITS destruction by bombing in World War II.

Indo- China

Indo-China: The Airlift to Dien Bien Phu continues. Vital men and supplies for the heroic garrison that has DEFIED the massed Viet-Minh onslaughts for over six weeks.

In the bitter ~~fighting~~ fighting, the French troops, despite gallant counter-attacks, are yielding a little more ground every day.

Overhead, fighters make constant strikes - straffing the advancing rebels. To-day, Dien Bien Phu is a human dam - trying to stem the Red Tide that threatens to engulf South-East Asia.

Fusilier Kinne

Derek

Leeds. The Proud home-town of Fusilier/Kinne who has been awarded the George Cross for his gallant conduct in Korean prison-camps. Despite long months of privation and torture, ~~his~~ ^(says the citation) his example was an inspiration to all.

Marshal Tito visits Turkey

Turkey honours a good neighbour, Marshal Tito, making a State Visit to the ~~People's~~ Republic. During his stay, the famous war-time partisan leader visited the Military Academy in Ankara, and took the salute at a ~~military~~ march-past. The visit is the sequel to the Treaty of Friendship signed between the two countries and Greece last year.

Epsom

Epsom: The Spring Meeting. And for the City and Suburban Handicap, the punter's fancy rightly turns to Sailing Light, with Gordon Richards up, as the field of ten get away - with ten furlongs to go. But previous winner Sunny Brae led from the start. And resisting a ^{strong} challenge by Gordon, on the favourite, won by a neck. The first City and ~~Suburban~~ Suburban Double for over forty years.
