

Boston Marathon

R. C. (contd)

America: 148 starters for the famous Boston Marathon - a 26 mile get-together - that's anything but a tea-party.

Soon after the start, No. 1 Jim Peters (Britain's champion) had shaken off all his rivals except Karvonen of Finland. ~~(No. 2)~~

Eight miles to go - and the Finn slowly forged ahead - to win by five hundred yards
