Roving Camera --

(2122)

sutton and Mablethorpe-

Sir Rupert de la Bere, London's Lord Mayor arrives to open the

It seems so long since those disastrous floods of Feb 1953, when Sutton and Mablethorpe suffered grievous inds damage and loss the Duke of Edinburgh, wearing gum boots, visited the towns to bring comfort to the homeless.

To-day, Sir Rupert, Chairman of the National Flood Distress Fund, cuts the tapes on the defences, which cost over five military million pound.

Planes for Indo-China-

Bay takes aboard a shipment of jet-fighters, for service with the gallant markers French forces in Indo-China.

Part of a mutual assistance programme, they'll bring timely belp to the hard-pressed garrison in Dien Bien Phu- as the Far-Eastern War enters a critical phase.

Rapids ---

Still America- this time in kuppier livelier vein- where they're holding the 20th 24th annual White Water Parade, at From They're over 100 boats of all kinds battle their way through the swirling rapids of the Mackenzie River, and the demanding a high degree of skilled carsmanship as a gruelling contact of I7 miles.

Gun Crews-

Lee-cnothe-Solent--- where crews of the Fleet Air Arm Gun Team go intoactive rehearsal for this year's Royal Tournament, IN JUNE.

The Bun Drill Competition is between four crews of selected volunteers

The whole display had been a property to the property of

In 1950, the Naval Air Crew meen won all three cups, and this year's determined team are disprised, once more, to be the champions.