

Lincoln-- Bomber Command Memorial Window--

II/5/54.

Lincoln Cathedral, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~-familiar landmark to Lincolnshire-based wartime bomber crews, was filled with a distinguished company of Bomber Command- including their ~~Chief~~ ^{OF WORLD WAR 2} Chief, Sir Arthur Harris- ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ 3

The occasion was the unveiling of a memorial window by Air Marshal Sir ~~George~~ George Mills, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ ^{their} present ^{RAF Officer} Commanding in-Chief

(Sound)-

~~The window, which was designed by Mr. J. Stammers of York, was subscribed for by the Bomber Command members of the RAF. It will be a permanent memorial to the 55,500 bomber crew members who did not return.~~

2124

G.B. NEWS ISSUE NO.2124.

RELEASED ON THURSDAY 13TH MAY, 1954.

Roving Camera Contd.

V.E. Day in Paris.

France remembers V.E. Day. On this ninth anniversary of Victory and the coming of peace to Europe - General de Gaulle (who led the Free French forces) laid a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Warrior, in Paris.

This day of tribute was overshadowed by the tragic news from Indo-China - that the gallant stand of General De Castries and his men in Dien Bien Phu was over. Ex-Paratroopers, home from the Far East, staged demonstrations - calling for General de Gaulle to assume power (BRING UP)

Lincoln - Bomber Command Memorial Window.

Lincoln Cathedral, familiar landmark to Lincolnshire-based wartime bomber crews, was filled with a distinguished company of Bomber Command - including their Chief of World War 2 - Sir Arthur Harris.

The occasion was the unveiling of a memorial window by Air Marshal Sir George Mills, their present Air Officer Commanding in Chief (BRING UP) SOUND.

Speech by Sir George Mills.

"We pray that we and all those who come after us, may always be guided by the high example of those who fell. With this prayer, I unveil this window".