

~~2188~~ 2128

Plymouth Hoe: To this revered green with a proud place in our Island story came Princess Margaret, to add another chapter, dedicated to those who sailed from the Port in World War Two - and did not return.

The Princess first inspected Royal Naval and Marine Guards of Honour.

~~Princess Margaret~~ The Memorial ^{pays last tribute to} honours those who served in the Plymouth Command and have no known grave, ^{AND BEFORE THE UNVEILING THE} PRINCESS RECALLED HER FATHER'S LONG NAVAL SERVICE! (SOUND)

~~Princess Margaret~~

~~Princess Margaret~~ The Plymouth Memorial includes many Commonwealth names, AND ^{IS AN} EXTENSION TO THE EXISTING OBELISK. On the bronze tablets - over fifteen thousand names are "remembered".

A place, too, for those whose line of duty took them into battle - to ^{bring these on the Home Front} graphic pictures & REPORTS ON THE WAR AT SEA. encourage those at home with

~~Princess Margaret~~

~~Princess Margaret~~