

Northern Ireland - Royal Visit

Ulster: An Aircraft of the Queen's Flight ^{arrived at} ~~flies into~~ Aldergrove R.A.F. Station - bringing the Duchess of Kent - and her daughter, Princess Alexandra - on a five day visit to Northern Ireland.

On the tarmac, Their Royal Highnesses are welcomed by the Governor, ~~Northern Ireland~~ - Lord Wakehurst...

The Governor, then presented Group-Captain ~~Mr.~~ Niblett - the R.A.F. Station Commander...

Then, After the official greeting - the Duchess made her way ^{across} the aerodrome - to inspect a Royal Air Force Guard of Honour...

And slowly - pausing occasionally for a brief word - the Duchess reviewed the proud ranks of airmen...

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

For Princess Alexandra, too, this was indeed, a wonderful occasion, for the seventeen year-old Princess was making her first Royal Tour - it was also her first visit to loyal Ulster..