

Quintuplet's life of Devotion

Quebec: At the Convent of the "Servants of the Blessed Sacrament" Mrs Ovila Dionne and two of Canada's Quintuplets were joined by two more of the famous sisters...

They had come to watch the acceptance of their sister, Marie, into the Order. Last November, Marie entered the Convent as a Postulant, and now she dons the white garb of a Novice.

After the ceremony, Mr Dionne received ~~her~~ congratulations before taking part in a family farewell to Marie. ~~which she attended before~~

The Pope

Italy: Enclosed in a bronze and crystal casket, the body of the newly Canonised Saint - Pope Pius the Tenth - is drawn ~~through the streets of Rome to the Basilica of St. Mary Major...~~ through the streets of Rome to the Basilica of St. Mary Major...

Here, the body of a much-loved Holy Father, ~~who, like many of his predecessors was a voluntary prisoner of the Vatican, during the eleven years of his Ministry, will lie in state for world-wide veneration & thanksgiving for the eleven years of his Ministry/cue~~ ~~and veneration.~~

Miss de Galand

Paris: A plane from Indo-China flies into Orly Airport - and Mlle Genevieve de Galard-Terraube, "The Heroine of Dien Bien Phu" is greeted by a great "welcome home!"

After thanking her many friends for their great reception - ~~there was~~ <sup>the gallant</sup> ~~own~~ <sup>KISS FROM</sup> her Mother - a French Viscountess.

Meanwhile, France has decorated its "Florence Nightingale" with the Legion of Honour.
