

Rolling Camera-

June 8th. 1954.

General Templer-

Malaya bids farewell to General Sir Gerald Templer, as he drives to the airport at Kuala Lumpur, the Federal Capital. General Templer has retired from his post as High Commissioner- and ^{will} ~~is to~~ take a short holiday in Switzerland, before returning to London.

The General arrived in Malaya during a state of emergency; he returns ^{LEAVING} ~~leaving~~ ^{SOMETHING MUCH NEARER} law and order behind him.
 A GREATLY IMPROVED SITUATION
 TITO- BEHIND HIM -

Greece- At the invitation of the King of the Hellenes and the Greek Government, President Tito ^{OF YUGOSLAVIA} paid a five-day state visit to Athens, where he made a tour of the historic ruins, ^{many} ~~amongst others, the Parthenon.~~

The Marshal went with a particular task- to agree with the Greek leaders ^{on} the establishment of a military alliance between Greece, Turkey and Jugoslavia.

Toronto Trade Fair

Canada becomes the "shop-window of the ^{world} ~~window~~" - as the Seventh International Trade Fair is opened in Toronto, by ^{BRITAIN'S} ~~the~~ President of the Board of Trade - Mr. Thorneycroft...

Making a ~~detiled~~ tour of the Exhibition, the Minister saw the products of more than twenty countries.

~~emphasizing~~ ^{EMPHASIZING} the International flavour of this annual trade gathering.

Balloon Ascent

SUFFOLK: ^{FLUNG UP WITH GAS AT BURY ST. EDMUNDS.} ~~at Bury St. Edmunds.~~ - A new high level was reached in Charity ~~ate~~ entertainment - a balloon ascent, made by Monsieur Dollfus of Paris, who had come specially from France for the occasion.

Despite ~~the~~ strong breeze, the balloon began to rise - ^{but before long}

~~After travelling twelve miles,~~ the Frenchman landed ⁱⁿ with ^{the} Continental ^{spiral-fair} in an asparagus field.