

America: Premier arrives in Washington

Washington Airport: ~~WARM GREETINGS FOR~~ ~~WARM GREETINGS FOR~~ a veteran TransAtlantic traveller, Sir Winston Churchill, making his seventh mission to the United States - in the cause of continued understanding and friendship.

The Premier was ~~warmly greeted~~ ^{WELCOMED} by America's Vice-President, Mr Nixon, and Secretary of State, Mr Dulles. ~~WARM GREETINGS FOR~~ ^{THEY HEARS} America, the reason for

~~the Premier's~~ ^{THE PREMIER'S} visit. (5-000)

The success of the Talks was foreshadowed by the Premier's reassuring "all's-well;" as he drove with Mr Nixon to the White House. Sir Winston meeting with a valued war-time colleague and personal friend ~~bridges~~ the differing ~~opinion~~ ^{opinion} opinions of Britain and America on world problems.