

Southampton: The liner Queen Elizabeth brings home two distinguished travellers - Sir Winston Churchill - and Mr Eden - after a job well done. The Prime Minister was returning after his seventh mission to the United States - in the cause of Anglo-American friendship and understanding.

~~As the ship was about to depart, Sir Winston travelled on to~~

~~at the airport, where he was met by a large number of people.~~

- * Asked about the result of his talks - Sir Winston stressed that they would bring long-term benefits. SOUND.

Alternative ending:-

- * Asked about the result of his talks.
- Sir Winston gave an encouraging reply.