

Germany: Visit from the Princess

15th July 54

~~Wahn Airport:~~ Germany, At Wahn Airport, ~~Princess~~ - Princess

Margaret began her three-day visit to British Forces in Germany by inspecting a Guard of Honour - mounted by British and Canadian servicemen honoured
Then - on to Bonn, where the Princess was the/guest of ~~her~~ the Federal President, Professor Heuss. The West German Chencellor, Dr Adenauer was also present, at this, the first official post-war visit to Germany by a member of the Royal Family. AND ROYAL NEWS FROM HOME

~~the~~ Sailing in the Royal Yacht "Britannia," the Duke of Edinburgh made a two-day visit to Dartmouth... There, he unveiled a memorial plaque to honour the U.S. amphibious forces, who sailed from the Port to join the great D-Day armada.

Then Duke ~~later~~ later, watched the Cadets undergo sailing-instruction on the River Dart.

And finally, to commemorate another Royal visit, the great Commonwealth Tour, and the year of Coronation - an ornamental vase has been presented to The Queen...

The gift of the British Pottery Manufacturers Association - the ten-sided vase incorporates the emblems of ~~the Commonwealth~~ the Commonwealth ~~emblems~~ - A superb example of the potter's art, and a fitting tribute to a crowning year of matchless Royal Service.