

London Airport: A plane-load of friendship flies in from the United States to be welcomed by forty-eight British boys, ~~the~~ proteges of the Variety Club, WHO ARE SPONSORING THIS GET-TOGETHER.

It's the start of "Operation Friendship"; the plane is carrying forty-eight American newsboys who are to be escorted on a good-will tour of Britain...

Leading this ^{friendly} ~~mission~~ mission is the Screen's No. 1 cowboy - "Hopalong Cassidy," Bill Boyd in person, ~~after meeting Billy Butlin.~~ AFTER MEETING BILLY BUTLIN.

HOPALONG TELLS YOUNGSTERS THAT WHEN THEY GREET HIM ON TOUR, ~~if they greet him~~ the girls will get a kiss and the boys - a man-sized handshake / SOUND.

Meanwhile, for the ninety-six boys, it was a case of "Howdy Pard" ~~During~~ THEN ON TO THE SEA-BREEZES OF CLACTON, WHERE ~~the boys are to be escorted on a good-will tour of Britain...~~ THEY ARE THE GUESTS OF MR BUTLIN, ~~the boys are to be escorted on a good-will tour of Britain...~~

~~ride the range of friendship together~~ THIS fourteen-day tour, ~~the boys are to be escorted on a good-will tour of Britain...~~ BRITAIN AND AMERICA WILL CERTAINLY break through the "old" corral of reserve, and ride the range of friendship together.