

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Mr Eden returns.

23rd July, 1954.

London Airport: Home from Geneva after weeks of toil, The Foreign Secretary outlines the <sup>heavy</sup> tasks that ~~face~~ <sup>the</sup> Indo-China Peace Conference.

→ had to face.
(BRING UP)

S O U N D

So - after ~~long and~~ <sup>a long</sup> anxious negotiations, this was the final act of ~~the seven-year~~ war. The truce is signed by the Cambodian representative (on the left) and the ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Viet-Minh Vice-Minister of Defence. The states of Viet Nam and Laos had signed earlier. / (BRING UP)

Well-earned applause for Premier Mendès-France, who had brought the courage he showed as a wartime ~~pilot~~ <sup>air force</sup> pilot to the service of France. / (BRING UP)

After ~~seven~~ <sup>eight</sup> years of sacrifice in the Far East, France celebrates the cease-fire... And a great reception in Paris - a reception led by his wife and members of his Government - greeted the Premier who had succeeded in his first great aim - peace in Indo-China. / (BRING UP)