

Sir Gordon in Hospital

Surrey: The Hospital Stakes; the roll is called, and still under ~~the~~ Doctor's orders (sorry Sir Gordon) is the first Knight of the Saddle - Sir Gordon Richards...

Recovering from injuries, <sup>received while racing</sup> ~~received while racing~~ in the Royal Colours, at Sandown, the Champion Jockey hopes to be at light exercise in a few days...

<sup>Schick's to</sup> A speedy come-back; ~~despite~~ Despite rumours of retirement, we all hope to hear again "Come on, Sir Gordon"!

Rubber Dinghy demonstration

London: A demonstration of new sea-rescue equipment. From the deck of the ~~RMS~~ <sup>RMS</sup> Durban Castle, a new-style rubber dinghy is thrown into the Thames...

A pull of a rip-cord has released gas mechanism ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ to make the lifeboat - self-inflating...

And in only thirty seconds, the Dinghy (made in sizes to seat six, ten or twenty people) is ready to protect ship-wrecked survivors under the most adverse weather conditions.

Ski-jumpers

A mid-summer snow-fall! No - it's not in Britain...yet! But at Salisbury, Connecticut, where they're preparing a artificial runway for an out of season ski-meet...

When it's really smooth - thirty-five top jumpers try it out.

~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~
~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~
And though they're mighty keen about their <sup>so-called</sup> winter sport - they're still glad that it's summer. After a bad jump - they can hit the hay - and then ~~xxxxxxxx~~ hide in shame..
