

Sussex: Unusual cricket visitors to Arundel Castle were the Canadian Touring Team - who met a strong side - captained by the Duke of Norfolk - in a one-day holiday match...

The home team included many past and present test stars - ~~including~~ <sup>quarry them</sup> Denis Compton who made four - before being bowled

The Duke of Norfolk soon got off the mark with a couple; but that was all he contributed to the final total of 163 for eight declared..

The Canadian team is the first to visit Britain at the direct invitation of the M.C.C. The object is to encourage cricket in the Dominion. And they needed 27 to win - when rain stopped play..

Now, back to the days when cricket <sup>really</sup> was a summer game. A coach and four arrives at a ~~match~~ <sup>match</sup> in the early 1850's...

First - a souvenir for the parlour mantel-piece ~~and~~ BUT THERE'S A MODERN TOUCH ABOUT THE CAMERA. ②

The opening bats win the admiration of the Ladies as they go in to face <sup>under-arm</sup> the ~~unrelenting~~ fury of the fast bowlers.

~~The occasion was an~~ <sup>ALYX</sup> ~~old~~ English Cricket Match at Bexley, Kent - the stake was a barrel of ale...

So after knocking the bowlers off their length - they celebrated by knocking off the wallop!!!

So to <sup>the</sup> Twentieth Century, ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> the Northern Model Flying Gala at Croft Airport, near Darlington.

Aeromodelling to-day <sup>is</sup> a highly-organised sport, and the tiny planes fall into two main classes.. The free-flight models, used for duration flying and the control-line craft..

This was a team-race in the control-line class. The three "pilots" in the centre keep the craft going over a set number of laps. A merry-go-round as the planes get their head - at anything up to 150 miles an hour.

Across to Guisley, in Yorkshire, for the "Festival of St. ~~Quentin~~ Oswald - an annual procession from the Parish Church to the Market Cross.

There, Lord Milner of Leeds addressed the gathering. ~~A traditional festival~~ <sup>A picturesque commemoration of</sup> festival to commemorate St. Oswald, the Patron Saint of Guiseley, who was responsible for the conversion of the North Country to Christianity, 1300 years ago..

~~and drama of the~~