Ballster - Royal Holiday in Scotland (2149) 6th August 54

Scotland: A warm Highland welcome for two young travellers, Prince Charles and Princess Anne, arriving from London in the charge of Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother - for their annual summer holiday on Deeside.
And there were special cheers for Princess Anne - on the eve of her fourth birthday..

The children were later joined, at Balmoral, by their Mother, who had been making the first visit of her Reign to the East Riding.

On his return from Canada, the Duke will complete a happy family gathering in the Highlands... AND THESE LATEST PICTURES FROM CANADA SHOW THE DUKE VISITING AN ALUMINIUM PROJECT ON VANCOUVER ISLAND. BACK IN BRITAIN - and a service welcome for the Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess Alexandra, arriving at Sandhurst, for the Passing-out Parade...

The Duke of Kent (who can be seen in the next rank wearing medals) was taking part in the Sovereign's Parade... A PROUD OCCASION FOR THE DUCHESS AS SHE WATCHED HER SON IN HIS FIRST YEAR AT THE ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE.
The Parade was taken by Field-Marshal Viscount Montgomery, who presented the Sword of Honour to Senior Under-Officer, B.L.G. Kenny of London ...
As a Junior-Cadet, the Duke of Kent took his place in the march-past - when over two-hundred cadets paraded before receiving their Sovereign's Commission..
