News flashes (2152) 17th August 54

Bavarian Strike

Western Germany: Large-scale industrial unrest continues - as metal workers of Bavaria join the National strike - demanding increased basic wages. But the strike notices got a mixed reception. Many employees decided to remain at work and the police had to form barriers to protect them from the angry strikers.

Altogether, about three million workers are calling for wage increases - in a dispute that may seriously retard German recovery.

Manning the Yards

Ipswich: At H.M.S. Ganges - the Navy Training Establishment at Shotley, boys perform the ceremony of "Manning the Mast" during a visit by Admiral Sir George Creasy.

AT THIS annual occasion - to mark the end of summer term, eighty-one young trainees climb the 142 foot high mast to man the yards and shrouds.

And topping them all - 16 year-old Sidney Bulman saluted the White Ensign AT A DIZZY HEIGHT [redacted]

A link with the past - as young Sailors of the future pay tribute to those graceful days of sail..

Town Criers

Hastings: Back to the good old days when the News came in loud chunks on street corners - Town Criers parade for the National Championships, staged by the News of the World.

Twenty-two entrants from England and Wales fought the battle of lung-power. [redacted] And this is how the winner, the famous Ben Johnson of Fowey, Cornwall, PRODUCED A LOUD IMPRESSION [redacted] SOUND (NEARLY SHATTERED THE MIKE)

The winner for the fifth successive year, Ben [redacted] in the [redacted] HAS AGAIN MADE THE JUDGES SAY "OH YES!".