

Essex Athletics: Empire Games heroes home

17th Aug. 54

Essex: Welcome home for two Empire Games heroes. Dr Roger Bannister escorts his "first patient" - marathon hero Jim Peters, to his Chadwell Heath home - and then joined the happy family re-union ^{at} the end of a six thousand mile journey from Vancouver

AND JIM, (WHO WAS CAPTAIN OF ENGLAND'S VICTORIOUS TEAM) NOW
~~re-united~~ re-united with his wife and two youngsters - spoke of the last dramatic minutes of the Marathon / SOUND. AND WILL YOU RUN AGAIN, JIM?

HIS PARENTS' HOME IN HARROW.
Later, large crowds at ~~the~~, welcomed ~~the~~ the "Master Miler", who had re-assuring words about the health of Jim Peters / SOUND.

And then - Roger described the decisive moments of that memorable Mile. ~~at~~
~~the~~ / SOUND

~~the~~ ~~and~~ ~~sister~~ ~~Joyce~~ ~~his~~ ~~pleasure~~
~~the~~