

Motor cycle Grand Prix

2153

From foaming rapids to roaring engines - a motor-cycle Grand Prix at Mount Druitt, New South Wales.

And when you're burning up the track - this is what it looks like from an exhaust-pipe angle..

Speeds of well over one hundred miles an hour on the straight, and first man home is Harry Minton - a top-rider - "Down-Under"

North Africa

North Africa: In Rabat - security forces went into action - rounding up suspected agitators, before the Sultan of Morocco left his heavily-guarded Palace to attend public prayers for a sacred Muslim Festival.
