Round the World- ctd-

Sprint Champions-

Cologne-- In the last event of the 1954 Bicycle ~~World~~ Championships, Britain's Cyril Peacock was up against John Tressider of Australia.

<sup>They'd won</sup> After ~~winning~~ a race each, Peacock carried off the decider- and thus became Sprint Amateur World Champion.

Horse Show-

Belgium-- On the second day of the great International Horse Show at Le Zoute, there was some high quality jumping, though there's disaster for one rider at the water ditch.

In the relay race over 14 jumps, honours went to the British Pair- Lady Williams on Grey Skies, and Major Gibbons on Last Star.

Well done. ?
