2159

Round the World-- Sept 10th. '54.

The Continent-- Cycle and car racing-

Gernmany-- Start of the motor cycle [redacted] side-car race at Hanover which ends the 1954 Championships [redacted] YES - THOSE BENDS REALLY TAKE YOUR BREATH AWAY. [redacted]

And [redacted] THE race was won by Willi Faust and Karl Remmert.

Capacity crowds at Milan- for the start of the Italian Grand Prix- with a gruelling 80 laps before the finish.

Mike Hawthorne in a Ferrari was second-- while ace-driver Fangio [redacted] a Mercedes, broke through [redacted] Italian opposition to win in just over 2¾ hours.

London- Children's Outing-

Kent-- Boarding planes at Lympne airport for a day trip to Le Touquet

130 Willesden boys and girls start the summer outing of the Curzon Crescent Estate Holiday Club. And there's a hearty send-off from Mr Adams, the organiser.

Soon the young trippers get their first glimpse of the fashionable French resort - and after landing, they make a bee-line for the shops (so different from Willesden High Street). And of course, ice creams [redacted] ARE "TOPS" IN ANY COUNTRY. DON'T YOU AGREE?

[redacted]

Yes-- the "Entente" flourishes- in spite of language difficulties, - but actions speak louder than words.

N. Zealand- Hillary inaugurates lift-

New Zealand--- In sub-zero temperatures, and blizzard conditions, Sir Edmund Hillary opens a new ski-lift on lofty Mount Ruapehu.

To-day, the man who scaled the world's highest peak- is just an armchair mountaineer.

[redacted]