

Round the World--

2159

Sept 10th. '54.

The Continent-- Cycle and car racing-

Germany-- Start of the motor cycle ~~side-car~~ side-car race at Hanover which ends the 1954 Championships. ~~YES - THOSE BENDS REALLY TAKE YOUR BREATH AWAY.~~

~~And~~ ~~the~~ ~~race~~ won by ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Willli Faust and Karl Remmert.

Capacity crowds at Milan- for the start of the Italian Grand Prix- with a gruelling 80 laps before the finish.

Mike Hawthorne in a Ferrari was second-- while ace-driver Fangio ~~in a Mercedes. broke~~ through ~~Italian~~ Italian opposition to win in ~~just~~ just over 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  hours.

London- Children's Outing-

Kent-- Boarding planes at ~~Lympe~~ Lympe airport for a day trip to Le Touquet 130 Willesden boys and girls start the summer outing of the Curzon Crescent Estate Holiday Club. And there's a hearty send-off from Mr Adams, the organiser.

Soon the young trippers get their first ~~glimpse~~ glimpse of the fashionable French resort - and after landing, they make a bee-line for the shops (so different from Willesden High Street). And of course, ice creams ~~ARE "TOPS" IN ANY COUNTRY. DON'T YOU AGREE?~~

Yes-- the "Entente" flourishes- in spite of language difficulties, - but actions speak louder than words.

N. Zealand-- Hillary inaugurates lift-

New Zealand--- In sub-zero temperatures, and blizzard conditions, Sir Edmund Hillary opens a new ski-lift on lofty Mount Ruapehu.

To-day, the man who scaled the world's highest peak- is just an armchair mountaineer.

~~At the end of the day, the children are enjoying the best of both worlds - the excitement of the trip and the comfort of the lift.~~
~~It was a long day for the children, but they were all enjoying the best of both worlds - the excitement of the trip and the comfort of the lift.~~
~~Our friends were all enjoying the best of both worlds - the excitement of the trip and the comfort of the lift.~~
