Antique Fair

Chelsea: At the Town Hall, the fourth Autumn Antique Fair was opened by Sir Malcolm Sargent - the famous Orchestral Conductor <sup>5</sup> SOUND. 12

Sir Malcolm, then, made a tour of the Exhibition - often pausing to examine the many fascinating collector's pieces of a bygone age...

All the exhibits are authentic antiques made prior to the year 1851 <sup>10</sup> 12

Malaya

Penang: Making his first State Tour of Northern Malaya, the High Commissioner, Sir Donald MacGillivray, inspected a military unit at Fort Cornwallis...

<sup>He</sup> then inaugurated <sup>2</sup> a new land-irrigation scheme which will bring encouragement and prosperity to local farmers. <sup>13</sup> 7

IN IRELAND - AS IN BRITAIN

~~the battle to save the harvest is on...~~ - the battle to save the harvest is on...

For weeks, the enemies of the farmer, gale-force winds and continuous heavy rains have combined to flatten the crops...

In the front line of the battle - (the lands heavy under wheat, oats and barley) - the farmer has moved in his mechanised forces - combine-harvesters and reaper-binders - ~~machines specially constructed to salvage~~ <sup>the devices for salvaging</sup> beaten-down crops. <sup>21</sup> 6

The harvest cannot, now, be a bountiful one; but these <sup>mechanical aids</sup> ~~machines~~ will, at least, help to prevent a crippling loss. <sup>5</sup> 5
