Queen Mother at Crail-

Scotland--- Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother visited Crail, Fife, to wish "God Speed" to the 2nd Battalion the Black Watch, before they left for service in British Guiana.

This is the second time within three years that Her Majesty has said "farewell" at Crail, to battalions of the Regiment, of which she is Colonel-in-Chief.

Before leaving, the Queen Mother talked to members of the Old Comrades Association.
