

Roving Camera (continued)

Indo-China. Following the cease-fire, thousands of refugees are being evacuated from Haiphong (in the now Communist-held North) to the South Viet-Nam port of Saigon - by the British aircraft-carrier H.M.S. Warrior. Most of the passengers ~~are~~ <sup>were</sup> women and children, carrying their few worldly possessions. And the Navy, ever the masters of improvisation, had converted the ship into a floating hotel and children(s) playground - for the unfortunate victims of Communist expansion.

Typhoon

Japan: This is the tragic aftermath of the great typhoon, which swept over the main islands - capsizing the ocean ferry "Toya Maru" - with a loss of ~~xxxxxxx~~ a thousand lives - including over fifty American... only 171 passengers survived the disaster... Japan, unhappily, lies in the direct path of these devastating storms; but this time, with a death-roll of thousands - it is the worst that has struck the country for nearly twenty years.
