

2172

Emperor Haile Selassie at Sandhurst

26th Oct. 1954

SANDHURST -

~~Sandhurst~~ At the ~~Academy~~ Military Academy - Officer-Cadets pay tribute to a Royal Visitor - ~~the~~ Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia - who took the salute at a ceremonial parade - held in his honour.

~~Following an inspection~~ the Cadets ~~participated~~ in review. On the Parade was the Duke of Kent - who is in his second year at the Academy...

The visit to Sandhurst was one of the interesting occasions ~~that have been~~ arranged for the Emperor - during his private stay in ~~Britain~~.

THE COUNTRY

Saar Agreement signed

In Paris - another step towards greater European unity comes with the initialling of agreements on the future of Germany. First to sign is the French Premier - ~~M~~ Mendes-France.

Then Mr Dulles for the United States, Britain's Foreign Secretary, Sir Anthony Eden - and Dr Adenauer of West Germany.

The agreements ~~bring~~ ^{mean the} ~~the~~ ^{OF THE ALLIED} ~~the~~ occupation and the entry of the ~~that~~ ^{WEST GERMANY} ~~country~~ into a Western European union and ~~the~~ NATO ~~Organization~~.

But chiefly - it brings about a new era in Franco-German relations by the settling of the long-standing Saar dispute.

Jean Desforges married

London: Wedding bells at Emmanuel Church, Forest Gate, for Jean Desforges ~~and~~ European Long-Jump Champion and hurdler. And though the photographers formed a formidable barrier - Jean (on the arm of her Father) won through in a photo finish.

After the ceremony - the radiant Bride re-appeared on the arm of her husband, Mr Ronald Pickering. They first met as pupils at Stratford Grammar School, where the Groom is now a sports-master.

Soon - the happy pair were the centre of a huge throng of well-wishers... But helped by the Police, the track star cleared this first ^{HAPPY} ~~obstacle~~ in her married life. ~~May she now have a clear run-in - to long years of~~ ~~but health and happiness.~~

AFTER A HONEYMOON IN JERSEY - THE WOMAN "ATHLETE" OF THE YEAR

26th Oct. 1954

Sandhurst: At the Royal Military Academy - Officer-Cadets pay tribute to a Royal Visitor - ~~the~~ Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia - who took the salute at a ceremonial parade - held in his honour.

~~Following the parade the Cadets marched past in review.~~ On the Parade was the Duke of Kent - who is in his second year at the Academy... The visit to Sandhurst was one of the interesting occasions ~~that have been~~ arranged for the Emperor - during his private stay in Britain.

Saar Agreement signed

~~The~~ Paris - another step towards greater European unity comes with the initialling of agreements on the future of Germany. First to sign is the French Premier - ~~Mr.~~ Mendès-France.

Then ~~Mr~~ Dulles for the United States ~~and~~ Britain's Foreign Secretary, Sir Anthony Eden - and Dr Adenauer of West Germany.

The agreements ^{mean the} ~~bring to an~~ end ^{of} the ~~German~~ ^{Political} occupation and the entry of ~~the~~ ^{West Germany} that country into a Western European union and ~~the~~ NATO Organisation.

But chiefly - it brings about a new era in Franco-German relations by the settling of the long-standing Saar dispute.

Jean Desforges married

London: Wedding bells at Emmanuel Church, Forest Gate, for Jean Desforges, Britain's European Long-Jump Champion and hurdler. And though the photographers formed a formidable barrier - Jean (on the arm of her Father) won through in a photo-finish.

After the ceremony - the radiant Bride re-appeared on the arm of her husband, Mr Ronald Pickering. They first met as pupils at Stratford Grammar School, where the Groom is now a sports-master.

Soon - the happy pair were the centre of a huge throng of well-wishers...

But helped by the Police, the track star cleared this first ^{happy} obstacle in her married life. ^{AFTER A HONEYMOON IN JERSEY, THE} ~~May she now have a clear run in~~ ^{to} long years of ^{WOMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR HOPES TO RESUME HER CAREER.} ~~her~~ health and happiness.