

Trieste

Trieste: Packing up and bound for home - it's a happy day for British troops as they load up for the journey. Since the end of World War II - the Tommy has been doing a grand job as a patient care-taker in this Adriatic trouble-spot.

And, as always, his cheerfulness and good humour have found the laughs in every situation.

So this is good-bye - as men of the Loyal Regiment and the Lancashire Fusiliers ~~are in the carrier Centaur~~ SO ABOARD THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER "CENTAUR" - BOUND FOR start the journey home - to "blighty!"
