

News in a flash

Arrival of Spartak Team

London Airport: On behalf of soccer fans throughout the country, Gaumont-British News ~~xxxxxx~~ joined in welcoming the Moscow Spartak Football Club, Russia's good-will ambassadors-of-sport to Britain.

Spartak are making their first tour of Britain and the first by a Russian team for nine years. ~~They are playing on 2nd September at Wembley.~~

We can assure them that they will find our Club football good and our hospitality and sportsmanship <sup>even</sup> better.

Dog Show

Olympia: Show Day for Canine Aristocrats. The day they leave their glass cases and lead a dog's life...

It's the Annual Championship Show of the Ladies' Kennel Association. But don't worry, once we get rid of these Autumn fashions - we can soon shake off the feminine influence... <sup>boy</sup> See what we mean!

During the judging, the onlookers commented on the fine coats of the dogs. What the dogs <sup>talked</sup> ~~commented~~ about - we leave you to guess...

Over three thousand dogs faced the judges, <sup>there's how the prizewinners</sup> ~~Only the prizewinner can~~ face the future...

Brides

Southampton: A warm dockside greeting for men of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, arriving home on the troopship "Dilwara" - at the end of a year of service in British ~~Guiana~~ Guiana...

Some of the men have brought home sweet reminders of that land of sugar and sunshine - twenty-five lovely brides...

~~They~~ They're all looking forward to meeting their new relatives and to settling down happily in their <sup>adopted</sup> ~~new~~ home-land...

R.S.M. Brittain

Aldershot: At the Mons Officer-Cadet School - Britain's senior Regimental Sergeant-Major - R.S.M. Ronald Brittain, M.B.E. is taking his last parade - before retiring after thirty-<sup>seven</sup> ~~four~~ years service in the Army...

During the Parade, the Inspection was carried out by the Duke of ~~Gloucester~~ Gloucester, who took the Salute at the ceremonial march-past.

R.S.M. Brittain's voice is said to carry from Chelsea Barracks to Victoria but somebody had to call a halt to his career - so here goes <sup>SOUND</sup>.

~~IN THE FUTURE, WE'RE TOLD, THE RSM WILL BE HEARD AS A RECEPTIONIST~~
But even in retirement, the Sgt. Major will be directing some-one his in Hutton Garden - so heaven help anyone who ~~controlled voice will be heard as a receptionist in Hutton Garden.~~