

A collection that won Royal approval for its brilliant designer, Christian Dior and raised nine thousand pounds for charity...

in London, members of the Queen Alexandra's Royal Army Nursing Corps marched to Westminster - to attend the Florence Nightingale Centenary Service. And their Commander-in-Chief Princess Margaret was present at the Abbey to honour the immortal memory of "The Lady with the Lamp" It is one hundred years since Florence Nightingale served the cause of humanity in the Crimea. To-day, Dame Helen Gillespie, Director of Army Nursing Services, pays tribute to this gentle pioneer of military nursing on active service...

~~Memorial to the British Medical Association~~ and in London, too, doctors who gave their lives in the Second World War are remembered by a new bronze fountain

~~erected by the British Medical Association~~

which incorporates the four figures representing medicine's historic role in the service of mankind. THE MEMORIAL IS dedicated to all Commonwealth

Medical men, AND HAS BEEN ERECTED IN THE COURT OF HONOUR OF THE BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION'S HEADQUARTERS. IT WAS UNVEILED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE B.M.A, SIR JOHN MCNEE. The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Fisher performed the dedication. The Archbishop paid tribute to all those who died in the cause of humanity. SOUND.

...has the name of Chief who dedicated.