

Wolverhampton: Among the happy fans at the Spartak match were our cameramen who captured the thrill of those four wonderful goals that routed the much-boasted Russian soccer machine. THAT WAS NO. 1.

Taking pride in a great Midland triumph, we show you again, in slow motion, how full-back Shorthouse launched the Wolves victory-drive. A well-placed free-kick. A Swinbourne header, ..punched away by goalkeeper Piraev, ..to Wilshaw...who crashes it home.

Wolves one-up. Then, six minutes from time, that amazing goal-rush led by Johnny Hancocks. THAT WAS NO. 2!

Again, we slow the camera. Watch the determination of Hancocks (in black shorts remember) as he forces his way through to smash the ball home.

What a shot! And was

Goal number three. A Swinbourne daisy-cutter...all along the carpet.

And Johnny Hancocks popping up in the middle to round-off that four-goal avalanche.

Yet Spartak were worthy opponents. Remember that well-judged lob by Skipper Simonian, ^{if looked like} a goal all the way,...

Until we stop the picture to show Shorthouse clearing right off the goal-line! And this was before the Wolves had scored.
