Dominici Trial

France: In August 1952, by this lonely stretch of road, Sir Jack Drummond, his wife and daughter were found brutelly murdered.

To-day, a 77 year-old French farmer Gaston Dominici (whose farm at Lurs stands close to the scene of this terrible crime) leaves Prison - to stand trial at Digne.

And in the relais of Justice, the events of that fateful night, during a camping holiday, that led to the untimely death of three British subjects, are slowly but surely unravelled.

Churchill's birthday gifts

London: In gratitude for his release from a concentration camp, and Zelio Billion British Brit one touching present that drew a letter of thanks from the Premier, was a bag of silver coins - collected by crippled girls at the Convent of St.

Brussels

Brussels: - Forty-six runners representing seven Nations competed in the Mace Criterium" cross-country international - run over just under seven miles of frost-bound ground.

And almost from the start - Britain's Gordon Firie was showing the way home - leading from J. Kovacs of Hungary, with mihalic of Yugoslavia (last year's champion) not far behind.

was back in the lime-light - minningxkyxfiffgygards sprinting home to win by fifty yards - repeating his 1952 victory in the same race. A great come-back!
