

Lunch for Sir Gordon

London: At the Savoy Hotel, a silver statuette of "Sun Chariot" (the famous filly that Sir Gordon Richards rode to three Classic victories for the late King) was presented to him by the "Sporting Life" at their Commemorative Luncheon. / S and while Turf personalities listened, the Duke of Norfolk paid further tribute. / SOUND.

During his career, Sir Gordon was champion jockey twenty-six times and rode 4,870 winners; but as he told the gathering, getting the horse first past the post seemed to be the least of his worries. / SOUND.
