~~AMERICAN~~

America-- End of the Royal Visit-

Nov 25rd '54.

New York--- Before leaving for home in the liner Queen Mary, Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother bade farewell to all who had made her triumphant tour of North America so enjoyable.

At a reception on board ^{THE LINER,} ~~held in the Verandah Grill,~~ (Sound) Her Majesty was given a framed picture of the Statue of Liberty, with the Manhattan skyline in the background- as a memento of her visit. (3)

The last goodbyes were said-- and then the huge vessel ~~begun~~ ^{her homeward voyage -} ~~for home,~~ carrying the Queen Mother, whose visit has done so much to strengthen the ties between English-speaking peoples.
